New York Stock Market

New York, November 14.—Prices drifted slowly toward a lower level during most of to-day's trading in stocks. At no time was the movement abrupt, and a rally late in the day reduced losses largely, so that at the close changes for the most part were small. Profit taking was continued in a moderate way, and unwillingness of holders of large stocks to sell whenever favorable opportunities were presented apparently was largely responsible for the course of the market Trading at times was listless, and professional dealings made up the bulk of the totals. The late rally in prices apparently was based upon the recent order of the Commerce Court granting a temporary injunction in the intermountain freight rate case, the text of which was made of the restrictions laid upon the Interstate Commerce Commission in regulating rates under the long and short haut clause. That the court thus ruies against what is probably the Commerce Commissions commission in regulating rates under the long and short haul clause. That the court thus rules against what is probably the Commerce Commission's most important of the kind was regarded as or great importance. Italizade as the court is stored. It is not the court's order. Union Pacific derived the greatest benefit with a rise of nearly two points. The whole market improved moderately. The bears found ammunition earlier in the day in the ouster decree of the Missouri Supreme Court against the International Harvester Company. The stock had been moving uncertainty for several days on reports that the company has not been able to agree with the Department of Justice upon a plan of reorganization to improve its standing under the Sherman law. When the decision of the Missouri court was announced it broke 5-8 points.

The bears attacked the list vigorously, and succeeded in depressing prices somewhat, but the losses were small except in the case of International Harvester itself, which subsequently recovered half of its decline.

The coal roads were again prominent. Lehigh Valley touched 1811-4, equaling its high price for the present movement. Reading fluctuated widely, and after gaining more than a point, closed nearly two points off. St. Paul again showed weakness, and United States Steel larged behind.

selling was reported to come from London, owing to apprehension there over the failure of a colonial bank.

The bond market was irregular, with American Tobacco issues again showing conspicuous firmness. Total sales, par value, $1.556,000 United States bonds unchanged on call, Total sales of stocks for the day were 737,-500 shares.

Sheriff S. P. Cowan was here last night from Wilmington to deliver to the penitentiary L. M. Sandlin, the Wilmington white man who is to die in the electric chair December S, for wife murder. Sandlin shows remarkable self-possession in settling himself in the State death cell to await electrocution. He killed his wife June 25 in the most cold-blooded manner in the dining-room of a boarding-house she had opened to support herself and children, after leaving him because of his cruel treatment and neglect.
